From the Amst. Cour. & Leid. Gaz. dated Oct. 21.

Vienna, October 8.

THE 5th instant Baron Zeiler and Monsieur Bruyninx Envoy of Holland, set out from hence for Presburg; thence to proceed to Raab where the Count de Lamberg tarried for them, and to go together to Schemnitz; to meet the Persons deputed by the Malecontents to treat of an Accommodation. Mean time they write from Buda and other Places, that the Suspension of Arms (mention'd in our former) is not so strictly observ'd by the Malecontents as by the Emperor's Troops. These Letters add, that a few days before the Publication of the said Suspension of Arms, the Towns of Cassovia and Esperies were forc'd to surrender to the Malecontents for want of Provisions; in the latter of which Places the Malecontents found 140 heavy brass Cannon: So that they have now a considerable Train of Artillery which before they wanted. After the said 2 Places were taken, Prince Ragotski advanc'd with a Body of Troops to the Castle of Szendre; and the Count de Malvezzi who commanded in it was forc'd to yield up that important Post, because the Garrison mutinied and threaten'd to kill him if he did not capitulate. The said Count, a Lieutenant, an Ensign, and 4 Soldiers, that remain'd faithful to him, artickled to be permitted to retire into Poland; but the rest of the Garrison took Service under Prince Ragotski. 'Tis reported Letters written by some of the chief of the Malecontents, are intercepted, and that it appears by them they have concerted Measures for making themselves Masters of Neuhausel: And that General Heyster has taken Occasion to tell the Emperor, that he is of Opinion the Malecontents are not sincerely dispos'd to Peace, that they are not to be brought to Reason otherwile than by Force of Arms, and that 20000 Men will be sufficient to reduce them; But other Persons of at least as much Credit with the Emperor, and of known Affection to the common Cause, have other Sentiments. The Count d'Aversperg, the Emperor's Ambassador at Turin, having sent several Expresses to this Court, to solicit the sending speedy and effectual Succours to the Duke of Savoy; several Conferences have been held here, and it has been resolv'd to send Prince Eugene to the Assistance of his Royal Highness, with 16 say some, others say 20000 Men, detach'd from the grand Army of the Allies on the Upper Rhine. His Imperial Majesty has by a Letter under his own Hand, represented to the Duke of Marlborough the Necessity of sending such a Number; and 'tis to press the Departure of them, that the Marquis de Prie the Duke of Savoy's Ambassador is gone hence to the said Army.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Octob. 25.

Vienna, Octob. 11. Letters from Presburg of the 9th of this Month advise, that Baron Zeiler and the Dutch Envoy were arriv'd there, and that the latter was gone to Schemnitz; but that Baron Zeiler continues at Presburg, waiting another Passport from Prince Ragotski; who in one which he has already sent to him styles himself Prince of Transilvania, and Head of the Confederated Hungarians; and uses some other Expressions which the Imperial Ministers cannot allow of. 'Tis hop'd the Dutch Envoy who is now with the Deputies of the Malecontents at Schemnitz, will find some Expedient to remove these Difficulties; that the Treaty may be begun and brought to a happy Issue. Mean time Order is given, for the Recruits that were rais'd for the Imperial Forces in Hungary, to march towards Italy: 'Tis rumour'd likewise, that the Danish Troops which lately came hither from Hungary, will be sent to Italy.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 21.

Lemberg, Sept. 24. The Swedes have spoil'd all the Cannon they found on our Ramparts and in our Arsenal; they had thoughts of saving 20 Pieces, but not finding here either Horses or Oxen to draw them, they were blown up and burst with the rest. Some of the oldest of these Cannons were extraordinary well cast, and of excellent Metal; the Enemies themselves own there are not the like in Europe. General Kaminski and Collonel Hendorf are discharg'd from their Confinement; but the Palatin of Kalisch cannot obtain his Liberty, because 'tis design'd to offer him in Exchange for the Bishop of Posnania. Prince Alexander Sobieski is gone towards Stryi. Yesterday the Swedish Infantry begun their March from hence towards Zolkiew. To day the rest of the Army, with the two Kings, broke up likewise; but we cannot learn yet which Way they design to bend their March; some say towards Brelz, others into Volhinia. Prince Wiefnowiski and the Referendarius of the Kingdom, are with the Body of Polish and Lithuanian Troops they command between Zloczow and Olesko: And nor far from them are 15000 Cossacks under General Mironowicz, who have utterly laid Waste the Lands of the Princes Sobieski. P. S. We have Advice that General Mironowicz, after having ravag'd the Country between Zloczow and Olesko, is march'd with the Poles and Lithuanians towards Brody; where they expect to be joyn'd by 30000 Cossacks, detach'd from General Mazzeppa, who with the rest of his Army is on the Frontiers of the Ukraine and Volhinia.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Octob. 23.

Lemberg, Sept. 30. 'Tis impossible to describe the miserable Condition in which the Swedes have left us; for they seiz'd on every thing of Value they found in this Place, belonging either to the Townsmen or to the Inhabitants of the Neighbouring Country. Our Burghers were forc'd to carry in to their Commissaries, Woollen Cloth, Linnen, and Household Goods, to make up what they wanted in Money to pay the 300000 Crowns which our Magistrates were forc'd to promise to raise to save the Town from a general Plunder; nor would the Swedes receive these Goods but at a low Price. Besides what was paid them by the Burghers; they carried away from hence a very great Sum of Gold and Silver coyn'd, Plate, and rich Goods, that were sent in hither, as to a Place of Security, from the Towns, Villages, and Seats, lying within the Compass of some Leagues round us. They have likewise despoil'd the Princess Dolka Wicnowski and Monsieur Francis Gloki, of all their Wealth, which was very great: And the Ecclesiasticks of this Place compute the Loss they have sustain'd at 50000 Ducats, being oblig'd to part with their Plate and the very consecrated Vessels from their Altars, to pay their part of the above mention'd Sum of 300000 Crowns. 'Tis reported at present, that the Swedish Army is march'd in 3 Columns towards Zamosc, not towards Zolkiow as was given out; so that we hourly expect to hear Zamosc has been treated like this Place.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 21.

Warsaw, Oct. 6. King Augustus continues at Pultow; his Troops are canton'd on both sides the Vistula, as also near the Outlets of the Narew and the Bug, and a Bridge of Communication is laid at Siraz. The Bishop of Warmia, Great Chancellor, the Bishop of Plocko, and several Palatins, have repair'd to his Majesty, to assist at a great Council that is to regulate the Winter-Quarters for the Troops; and advise in what manner to do it, so as no Ground of Discontent may thereby be given. 'Tis talk'd an Amnesty in favour of the Cardinal Primate and the House of Lubomirski, which is dispos'd to abandon the Party of King Stanislaus, is in Agitation.

Dantzick, October 11. The Troops commanded by General Brand, that were marching towards Marienburg in quest of the 3000 Swedes under General Mayerfeld, are countermanded; and part of them have already pass'd through Grandentz, in their way back to reinforce King Augustus's Army; the King of Sweden being said to be upon the March towards Warsaw.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Octob. 25.

Hamburg, Octob. 21. Letters from Poland say, the King of Sweden is marching back from Russia, with the greatest part of his Army, to the Vistula; and that General Reenschild is gone with a strong Detachment towards Lublin. The King of Poland is still at Pultow. At the Intercession of the Pope's Nuncio, the Bishop of Posenia is not sent to Saxony, but to one of the Hans Towns.

Dantzick, Octob. 18. A Party of Saxons having surpriz'd and seiz'd, within 3 Leagues of this City, the Waywod of Lenczick George Towianski, and with him several fine Horses and 15000 Rix-dollars belonging to the Cardinal Primate; have carried him to the King of Poland's Camp. The Cardinal foreseeing this Waywod, having been one of the chief Stricklers against King Augustus since the Troubles of Poland began, and particularly a great Promoter of the new Election, will be treated as severely as he deserves, has besought all the Foreign Ministers here to write to the King in his behalf. Prince Lubomirski, who is now at Breslaw, is treating for himself and Family of an Accommodation with King Augustus; and thus the new King Stanislaus is soon like to have very few Adherents, of any Figure, left.

Whereas by the Approbation of the Royal Society, Proposals were publish'd in May 1703 by T. Bennet, R. Knaplock and R. Wilkin, Booksellers in St. Paul's Church-yard, for Printing the Philosophical Transactions dispos'd under General Heads, and which should have been ready for the Subscribers before the end of Michaelmas Term in the same Year. This is to give Notice, that (for the Reputation of the Work, and for the full Satisfaction of all Gentlemen who have been Incouragers of it) the Author has taken so great Care in Methodizing and Correcting the Multitude of Papers contain'd in it; that the Publication has been thereby delay'd a whole Year beyond the Time intended. But now all the Copy being ready, and above 240 Sheets actually printed off, (the full Number first propos'd) yet such Gentlemen as desire the Advantage of Subscribing, and who make their first Payment (10 s.) before the 20th of November, shall have all the Allowance offer'd in the first Proposals. N. B. All the Cuts are new grav'd, nothing material is left out, nor will the Reader be burthen'd with any thing that could be spar'd without prejudice to the Sense of the several Ingenious Authors. It will certainly be publish'd before the end of November next, and altho' the Bulk of it will be increas'd by above 40 Sheets more than were at first intended, yet no Advance will be expected for that great Addition by the Undertakers.

In a few days will be publish'd,

Cassandra: (but I hope not) Telling what will come of it. Part I. In Answer to the Occasional Letter: Numb. I. Wherein the New Associations, &c. are consider'd.
